

Yarra Valley

Set on Melbourne's doorstep is an abundantly rich valley that is home to highly awarded wineries and innovative, indulgent dining experiences

GOOD TO KNOW

A world-class wine region – cool-climate chardonnay, pinot noir, shiraz and cabernet sauvignon

Less than one hour's drive from Melbourne

60 cellar-door experiences

For centuries, the Yarra Valley's sparkling clean water and fresh produce has nourished its people. Today this region is home to one of Australia's most innovative cool-climate wine and culinary regions, where awarded wineries, top producers and imaginative chefs are around every corner. Here you can pick your own cherries or sample local cheeses and handcrafted chocolate delights, soar above the valley at dawn in a hot air balloon, or explore spectacular scenery in national parks. The choices are endless.

Cellar doors

- Seville Estate — sample wine, charcuterie and wood-fired pizzas in this industrial-chic architectural surrounding.
- De Bortoli Yarra Valley — a pioneer of the valley, where wine tastings are paired with cheese plates.
- Yarra Yering — award-winning fine wines from one of the valley's oldest vineyards.
- Domaine Chandon — a perennial cellar door favourite, where visitors can learn about the art of making sparkling wines.

MORE NOTEWORTHY WINERIES:

- Coldstream Hills
- Yering Station
- Medhurst
- Dominique Portet

Where to stay

Chateau Yering – elegant luxury accommodation in one of the valley's oldest and most acclaimed hotels.

Yering Gorge Cottages – relax in spacious accommodation with kangaroos at your doorstep.

The Farmhouse at Meletos – private, Provençal-styled suites with complimentary breakfast.

Yarra Gables – cosy accommodation in Healesville near to the world-class Healesville Sanctuary where visitors can get up close with native Australian animals.

Food and wine experiences

Oakridge Wines — sample fine wine in the cellar door or dine at the acclaimed restaurant, where co-executive chefs Jo Barrett and Matt Stone create dishes using produce from the onsite kitchen garden.

TarraWarra Estate – an innovative wine and food destination, featuring a cellar door built into the hillside and an accompanying art gallery.

Yarra Valley Dairy – sample handmade artisan cheeses or enjoy a meal with views of the surrounding valley.

Rochford – try a wine blending class at this upscale and creative wine estate that also regularly hosts world-class events and concerts.